- (c) No invitation shall be issued to the public to subscribe for any shares in or debentures of the Company.

3. General Authority

Wherever in the Companies Act, 1956, it has been provided that the Company shall have any right, privilege or authority or that any company can not carry out any transaction unless the Company is so authorised by its Articles, then in that case, Articles hereby authorise and empower the Company to have such right, privilege or authority and to carry out such transactions as have been permitted by the Companies Act, 1956. Such rights include any kind of alteration in Share Capital. The Authorised Share Capital of the Company is as per clause V of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

4. Issue of preference shares

- (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 80, any redeemable preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms as may be specified in the resolution.
- (b) Every member of the Company limited by shares and holding any preference shares therein shall in respect of such shares has a right to vote in the manner and to the extent the equity share holders are entitled to vote, so long as equity share capital is not issued and subscribed.

5. Increase of capital

The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution, increase the share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as may be specified in the resolution.

6. Method of issuing capital

The shares shall be entirely at the disposal of the Directors and they may allot or otherwise transfer them to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as they may think proper, subject to the provisions of Article 2 hereof.

7. Transfer of shares to relatives

Save as provided by these provisions, no shares shall be transferred to a person who is not a member or related as a lineal ascendent or descendent, wife or husband or a grandchild of any member as long as such member or relative is willing to purchase the same at a value agreed between the members intending to sell and the Board, failing of such agreement the value fixed by the Auditor of the Company.

8. Offer to existing members

In order to ascertain whether any member is willing to purchase the share, the proposing transferor shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called the 'Transfer Notice') to the Company that he desires to transfer the share. Such notice shall constitute the Company as his agent for the sale of the share to any member of the Company at the fair value, The transfer notice may include several shares and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

9. Procedure when Company finds purchaser

If the Company shall, within the space of 30 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a person willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called the "Purchasing Member") and shall give notice thereof of the proposing transferor, that he shall be bound, upon payment of the fair value, to transfer share to the purchasing member.

10. Default by transferor to transfer

If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, makes default in transferring the share/shares, the Company may receive the purchase money and thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the share/s and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company shall be a good discharge for the purchasing member and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the proceedings, shall not be questioned by any person.

11. Notice of intention to transfer

If the Company shall not, within the space of 30 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a member willing to purchase the shares or any of them and shall not give notice to the proposing transferor in the manner aforesaid, the share specified in any transfer notice to given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered by the Company in first place to the members other than the proposing transferor as nearly as may be in proportion to the existing shares held by them respectively and the offer shall in each case limit the time within which if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined and may notify to the members that any member who desires an allotment of shares in excess of his proportion should, in his reply state how many excess shares he desires to have and if a member/s does/do not claim their proportions the unclaimed shares shall be issued for satisfying the claim in excess. If any shares shall not be capable without fraction of being offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, the same shall be offered to the members including the Directors or some of them in such proportion or in such manner as may be determined by the Directors. If Company does not find any member willing to purchase shares within the said limit, the Company shall intimate accordingly to the transfer who shall, thereafter, be at liberty to transfer the shares to any person, approved by the Board, at a value not less than fair value.

12. No notice of any trust

No notice of any trust, express or implied or constructive shall be entered on the register of members or of debenture holders and the Company, shall not be bound by or recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any shares and any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these presents otherwise expressly provided) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entry thereof in the shareholder's Register.

13. Directors's right to refuse the transfer

The Directors may at any time in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion and without assigning any reason whatsoever, decline to register or acknowledge any proposed transfer of share and their powers or discretions to refuse such transfer shall not be affected by the fact that the proposed transferor is already a registered member of the Company. Without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid powers, the Directors may in particular decline in any case in which the Company has a lien upon the shares (or any of them) or whilst any shareholder executing the transfer is either alone or jointly with any person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever or whilst any money in respect of the shares desired to be transferred to any of them remains unpaid or unless the transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval of the transfer by the Board.

14. Transmission of shares

The executors or the administrator of a deceased shareholder shall be the only person/s recognised by the Company as having any title to the shares, in the case of a share registered in the name of two or more holders, the survivors or the executors or administrators of the deceased survivors shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to the share. The estate of the deceased joint holder shall continue to remain liable in respect of any share which has been jointly held by him with other persons. It shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of Probate or Letter of Administration or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Directors may deem fit.
